

E-RATE WEBINAR

GETTING STARTED: E-RATE FIRST STEPS

WEBINAR 1/3

OCTOBER 22, 2013

4:05 to 4:50 MST, Free

> TOPICS OF DISCUSSION

- What is E-Rate?
- Is my school or library eligible, for how much?
- How to quickly and accurately submit a Form 470

Knowing how to get started with E-Rate funding is often the most difficult step.

Join us for this free webinar to help get you started on the path to E-Rate funding, plus tips and tricks for first-timers. You'll learn about Discount Rates, Deadlines, Program Requirements and how to get the most of your Funding Request.

Presenter:
Mark Sheen,
*Collective IT Founder,
Chief Technologist*

Mark has been with CIT from the beginning. He earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University and has numerous IT and teaching certifications and endorsements. Mark has a background in education with over 6 years as a teacher and another 3 years in school administration. He is currently an MIS candidate at Harvard University.

Mark has trained school boards, technology leads and administration staff to take advantage of E-Rate funding since 2010.

> REGISTER ONLINE TODAY

thecollectivetech.com/training

The Collective IT E-Rate Webinar series are free webinars that provide regulatory information and updates to keep your school up-to-date on new technologies, program updates, and best practices to address key issues that impact your organization.

Find out more by contacting info@thecollectivetech.com

2013, Collective IT - Webinar Series 01